

a Context-wise differences between the two highest BA values

b Changes in selected model identity under alternative evaluation conditions

Panel a: boxes and points describe observed distributions; y-ranges differ.
Panel b: points are changed-context fractions; bars retain existing paired 95% intervals.