

a Differences between the two highest BA values in each context b Changes in selected model identity under alternative evaluation conditions

